Diwali Melas by SHG's

Women of different Self-Help Groups (SHG) under the guidance of NULM south west participated in Diwali Melas, showcasing their handcrafted products, including beautiful diya sets, handmade soaps, candles pouches, purses, slings, chocolates, and other festive items. The event not only provided a platform for these talented women to display and sell their creations but also helped them gain confidence and financial independence. We are immensely proud of our SHG women and their dedication to creating and promoting self-reliance.
