

YASH SEWA SAMITI

Newsletter August ,2024

Festivals like Independence Day , Raksha Bandhan, Janmashtami encourage people to give back to society and make bonds stronger with in the community. Donors like to distribute food, educational materials sponsor children's education , support women's livelihood to make them self reliant. Festivals also teach children about virtues like kindness, empathy and integrity.

Thank you Donors for your unwavering support.

International Art Appreciation Tour

IMPACT

1. Art transcends cultural and language barriers
2. Art has the potential to communicate complex social issues.
3. It engages community through creativity.
4. Diversity and inclusion in art from various cultural backgrounds.
5. It provides a safe space for individuals to express and process their emotions through creativity.
6. This reinforces the need for NGO to remain adaptable and innovative in its approach.
7. The NGO can use art to help children, women & senior citizens to express their own cultural heritage.
9. NGO can incorporate story telling in its work, not only in documenting the lives and progress of its beneficiaries but also in telling its own journey.
10. NGO incorporates sustainable practices in its art and livelihood programs by teaching beneficiaries to create eco friendly crafts or artwork from recycled materials

Sarita Bhatia from Yash Sewa Samiti joined Delhi Collage of Art for an ART APPRECIATION COURSE So the 40 artists travelled to Germany for the same. She had insightful experiences and learnings. She is sharing Impact of Art in an NGO. Immediate Impact was Drawing Competition in MCD school.
